A.M.T.A.S MUSETTE

Hi, I'm Fiona!

I am the PRESIDENT for the 2020 AMTAS board! I am a senior/student intern at Temple University and my primary instrument is clarinet. I am stoked to serve our board in working closely between professionals of the AMTA and students to increase connectivity within the Music Therapy community as a whole! I look forward to all we can do as a board this year to serve our music therapy student force!

Hi, I'm Naomi!

I am the PRESIDENT-ELECT for the 2020 AMTAS board! I am a senior at Colorado State University and my primary instrument is bassoon. As President-Elect I am responsible for appointing Student Committee Representatives, and working with the President in her assorted responsibilities. I am so excited to contribute to our student board for the next two years!

Hi, I'm Grace!

I am the VICE PRESIDENT for the 2020 AMTAS board! I am a sophomore at Alverno College and my primary instrument is voice. As Vice President, I update the social media platforms and AMTAS website, to ensure transparency on our fundraisers, events, and scholarships going on throughout the year! I am so excited to serve on the board this year, knowing that the interconnectivity of our boards ensures a strong voice for students in the AMTA!

Hi, I'm Jadyn!

I am PARLIAMENTARIAN for the 2020 AMTAS board! I am a sophomore at Alverno College and my primary instrument is voice. Through my powerful love of all things Roberts Rules, I serve the board in updating our bylaws, uphold his sacred rules during all meetings, and keeping contact with Parliamentarians across AMTAS to ensure consistency by the bylaws and procedures!

Hi, I'm Emily!

I am the SECRETARY for the 2019-2020 AMTAS board! I am a senior at Drury University and my primary instrument is voice. As secretary, I take the minutes for all AMTAS meetings, and manage the newsletters for AMTAS. I am so excited to be on the board this year and cannot wait to see what we can accomplish together as a student body these next months!

Hi, I'm Coco!

I am the TREASURER for the 2019-2020 AMTAS board! I am a Junior at Berklee College of Music, and my primary instrument is voice. As Treasurer, I supervise the financial affairs of AMTAS, including creating and trackign the AMTAS budget, providing financial reports, and managing scholarship funds. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you on the board this year!

And... I'm Jeffrey Wolfe!

MT-BC, Advisor

I am the STUDENT ADVISOR for the AMTAS board. I'm a board certified music therapist and the Director of Community Programs and Financial Operations at Institute for Therapy through the Arts, located in Chicago. My role as student advisor includes: Chairing the STudent Affairs Advisory Board, and coordinating the AMTAS executive board and each regions student adviser and president.

The regional student advisers are highly active in supporting each regional AMTAS and creating an atmosphere of mutual respect and safety for all students. It is our goal to support studentss in addressing their concerns and supportig individual and educational growth.

Finally, I look forward to student submissions for the E. Thayer Gaston Research Competition. Each research paper submission is eligible for a $500 award and possible publication int he Journal of Music Thearapy. With that being said, I'm excited to meet you all very soon--hopefully at our online AMTA National Conference this November!

Our Mission

The Mission of the Student Affairs Advisory Board and AMTAS is to provide guidance, support, and knowledge to the American Music Therapy Association Students and regional boards, be the communication liaison between students and their faculty, act as an educational resource concerning members learning and administration of bylaws, and uphold rules, regulations, implementation of charges, ethical guidelines, and standards of practice
