MUSical NotEs from The AMTAS Executive Board!

Hi, I am an intern at The Cleveland Music School Settlement in OH. This year I look forward to increasing communication as 2008 AMTAS President. Hopefully you will make plans to begin or renew your AMTA Membership and attend your regional music therapy conference, whether in IL, LA, MA, NJ, TX, or WA!

Gretchen Chardos

Hello, I am a junior at the UMKC Conservatory of Music. Thanks to all who participated in the 2007 AMTA Conference and AMTAS business meetings. As your 2008 AMTAS Vice President, I will be updating the official AMTAS website. Check it out at www.ser-amta.org/amtas/.

Gabrielle Tee

Hello, I am a junior at Loyola University New Orleans and your 2008 AMTAS President-Elect. AMTAS will be well-represented at the AMTA Conference this year, thanks to the students who are serving on the AMTA Standing Committees. Students and interns are an integral part of the AMTA. I look forward to seeing everyone in St. Louis!

Rose Fienman

Hello, I am a graduate student at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, MI. As treasurer, I will be helping with the scholarship program as well as the service project fund to provide MT materials for programs in other countries. Come to the regional business meetings to find out more!

Christopher Combie

Hello, I am a junior music therapy student in Boone, NC at Appalachian State University. I am the Parliamentarian of AMTAS, and review the by-laws and study Robert's Rules. I strongly encourage all of you to attend your regional conference, and become active in your regional branch of AMTAS.

Allison Reyburn

Hello music therapists! I am a senior at Wartburg College in Waverly, IA. As Secretary, I am in charge of the newsletter and the Facebook group, if you haven't joined already - JOIN US @ www.facebook.com! It's fun, easy, and a great way to communicate and stay up to date. I look forward to working with everyone this year and making AMTAS stronger than ever.

Emily Izen

Hello students! I'm pleased to have the opportunity to serve another great year on the AMTAS EB as the AMTAS Past President. I graduated in December 2007 from East Carolina University, and completed my internship in Madison, WI in August 2007. I am currently working at Misericordia, a residential facility for individuals with Developmental Disabilities, in Chicago, IL. I look forward to hearing and seeing all that you do in your regions!

Megan Cummins, MT-BC

Greetings! I am the chairperson of the Student Affair Advisory Board (SAAB). The purpose of SAAB is to provide a forum where you are able to bring up any student concerns. My role is the administrator of SAAB, and advisor to your AMTAS officers. Dr. Petra Kern, MT-BVM, MT-BC, MTA
